PTA Speaker Says Atom Bomb May Bring Earth Heaven, Hell

"It is not natural to be intolerant," said Dr. Arnold Look, president of Ellis College, at a meeting of the Narberth Parent Teachers Association in the Narberth School Monday evening.

"We don't come into the world with any feeling of intolerance. For example there isn't any religious prejudice among babies. They learn it from their elders as they grow older," he said.

Dr. Look based his speech on the positive and negative elements of tolerance—as affecting our ability to get along peacefully with other nations and with ourselves.

"Intolerance isn't safe any longer," he declared, "because in the first place we have nations competing for world supremacy. Russian in particular is the rising star of the world of tomorrow. She is better unified than we, and is definitely going places. Russia has no racial prejudices at all. And secondly, the atom bomb will change our civilization. Because it we now have two ways of life before us, the way of life and the way of death."

"Tolerance must be based on a faith in the people. We will have to expand our education on a world basis very quickly. If we can educate our youngsters to believe in the integrity of all people we may be able to get along with other nations."

"Then too, we must have freedom for all. Germany felt that there were more important things than freedom. First the Jews lost it, then the Protestants, and finally the Germans went. We must have freedom for all, or we aren't going to have it for anyone."

"You don't make progress by eliminating problems but by developing science to control the problems. Through the atom bomb science has given us the chance to make this world like heaven or hell and we can only hope that God will give us enough sense to choose the right way of life."

The meeting opened with an invocation given by the Rev. Richard H. Taffel followed by the pledge to the flag.

The minutes were read by Mrs. Mabel Hunsicker in place of the secretary Mary R. Clear who was unable to attend. Then the treasurer's report was read. Richard L. Lehman, president of the association, who presided, reported that the drive will be turned in this week and then the drive will be closed.

The parent-teachers' chorus sang two numbers under the able direction of Mrs. W. J. Drennen, wife of the school principal.

The meeting closed with the singing of "The Star Spangled Banner."

Nash's Warned of Fire By Passerby

The Narberth Fire Department extinguished a fire in the room of the home of R. J. Nash, 4 Tona Ave., on Monday evening which is believed to have started from sparks from a chimney.

A passerby saw the blaze and informed the Nash's and due to the quick discovery of the fire, the firemen were able to extinguish the blaze before much damage was done.

At Staff School

Approval of the tuition figures now being charged by the Lower Merion School District has been given by the State Department of Public Instruction.

These are $175.99 for students attending the elementary schools from outside the School District; $191.93 for those attending the junior high schools and $189.41 for those attending senior high.

Although these figures are approximately $5 lower than the rates for the 1944-45 school year they are considerable higher than what Narberth Borough children were paying to attend Lower Merion schools last year.

Up until this year by special agreement the Narberth School Board was paying only $125 for each of the students it sent to each of the schools in Lower Merion.

Last Spring the Lower Merion school directors were advised that they would have to charge Narberth Borough children the same tuition rate they applied to other outside students. This decision resulted in the Narberth Borough school directors raising their school tax rate.

Appoint Mrs. Diez Ration Board Head

Consolidated Office To Be in Ardmore Harman Resigns

Appointment of Mrs. Martha M. Diez, 610 Pembroke Rd., Bryn Mawr, as chairman of the consolidated Bryn Mawr and Ardmore ration boards was announced yesterday.

The appointment was announced by Frank L. Loftus, OPA director for the Philadelphia district. Headquarters of the consolidated board will be at 66 E. Lancaster Ave., Ardmore, office of the present Ardmore Rationing Board.

Mrs. Diez came to the Bryn Mawr board as a volunteer worker in 1942. In 1943 she became price panel chairman. Mrs. Diez is an instructor at Bryn Mawr College and her husband a professor at the college.

The consolidated board will be known as the Bryn Mawr-Ardmore Consolidated Local Price Board.

One day before the appointment of a consolidated chairman Henry M. Harman, 6 Hathaway Circle, Wynnewood, announced he was resigning, effective at once, as chairman of the Ardmore Rationing Board.

"My lips have been sealed for three years," he said, "because I was in the government service. Perhaps I will have a statement to make in a few days."

Henry B. Perry, Morris Ave., Bryn Mawr, who is chairman of the Bryn Mawr Rationing Board, could be reached when the announcement was made, but his wife said:

"Mr. Perry considers that his job has been done and he thinks he is entitled to a rest."

At the consolidation board employees will be retained on the basis of seniority and other ratings decided by the Civil Service Commission. Their performance in price panel work also will be taken into consideration.

The consolidation board will continue to handle rationing from outside the School District. Price control work. By the first of the year, it is expected that most of the board's time will be devoted to price control.

Bonwit Teller Revives Plan To Build Store in Ardmore; Files Request For Zone Change

Bonwit Teller filed a petition this week for a zoning change in North Ardmore as a preliminary move to obtain a building permit for the construction of a Main Line store.

Discussions conducted by representatives of the Philadelphia store with members of a special committee appointed by Lower Merion commissioners already have begun. The plan would permit the store to be built on a site which is now zoned for residential use.

The new plan shows the store owners do not intend to use the present Mason property as a building site but as a parking lot. Bonwit Teller owners have dropped the plan they had to bring a store entrance way in from Montgomery Ave. to out across the corner to Anderson Ave. This was one of the main points that the commissioners held out against when Bonwit Teller first wanted to come to Ardmore.

The new plan shows the entrance to the parking lot as circling about the proposed store and coming out alongside the Pennsylvania Railroad Company right-of-way on Anderson Ave.

Commissioners and Bonwit Teller met last week to discuss the plan. The plan was approved by the commissioners and Bonwit Teller will file a petition for a zone change with the Board of Commissioners.

Welcome Banners Are Still Waving On Jones Street

The welcome-home banners which were strung across Jones St., in West Manayunk are still waving despite the objections of the Lower Merion Police Department.

Residents of the street placed banners from house to house to welcome home the returning veterans. Among the boys were Cpl. George A. Feracco, Jr., and Pfc. Patsy J. Feracco, sons of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Feracco, of 137 Jones St., and Pfc. Joseph Dilella, of 12 Leaden Ave.

Cpl. Feracco, away from home 44 months, has seen service in Australia, Leyte, and Luzon. Pfc. Dilella is a veteran of Saipan, Tinian, Guam, and Okinawa. Dilella has been a Japanese prisoner for over three years.

Recently, Lower Merion police advised those responsible for putting up the banners, that an ordinance prohibited ropes from being stretched across streets. They said the banners would have to come down.

The howl that arose eventually reached the ears of Township Manager Evan L. James who after consultation with Township Solicitor John E. Forsythe explained that the ordinance was directed against advertising.

Mrs. Cowie's grandson, Jeffrey Alan Klapper, who was riding with the driver jammed on her brakes and suffered a cut lip.

HERE AND THERE

by BETSY-ANN

As the four-thirty train pulled into the Narberth Station last Thursday afternoon, a young mother, with her small son in her arms, watched anxiously as the passengers left the train. And then she saw him, her husband, a Paratrooper, who had been overseas for more than two years. As he threw his arms around his wife and child he exclaimed, "My God! Is he mine?"

Obvious of all those around them, the soldier carrying his son for the first time, with an arm around his wife, walked on up the street toward their home. Just the three of them in a world all their own.

In this fine October weather, drive up across Montgomery Pike into Penn Valley and park your car in a country lane and walk for an hour down through the valley. See some of the loveliest scenery along the Main Line in its gorgeous fall coloring.

November 15 is the deadline for the return of Navy League knitting. Please return your knitting before that date to the Red Cross Work Room in Elm Hall, or to Mrs. Henry Smith of Wynnewood.

Local Notices 2400 That Negotiations Have Been Broken

Demand for 30 Percent Wage Increase Has Complicated Issue, Says Management; Old Contract Expired In August

Officials of Local 131, UAW-CIO notified their members this week that contract negotiations between the union and management at the Autocar Company in Ardmore had broken off and they were asking the National Labor Relations Board for a strike vote.

Since their old contract expired in August members of the Local CIO's negotiating committee have been meeting with representatives of management in attempt to agree on the terms of a new contract.

The first intimation that negotiations had broken down came on Tuesday when CIO officials made it known they would distribute mimeographed notices to their members when they came off their shifts at the plant the next day.

"Acting on the authority given these two committees, the membership meeting held on Sunday, October 7, at St. Colman's School Hall, we have hereby applied to the National Labor Relations Board to hold a strike vote on this plant, within 30 days from this date."

The returning soldier is not a social problem, and individuals and organizations should stop treating him as such. Harry J. Crosson, U. S. Veterans' Bureau manager in Philadelphia, told Bala-Cynwyd Narberth Rotary Club members Tuesday.

"There are very few psychiatric cases among returning servicemen," he declared. "All that most of them need to do is to sit down to a dinner of fried chicken and everything is fine."

Crosson asserted that the same laws which helped World War I veterans have been enacted by Congress to aid the veterans of this war, in addition to new legislation.

He cited the life hospitalization benefits, which are available to every service man and woman, the educational opportunities, mustering-out pay, the United States Employment Service and the GI loans.

Honorably discharged veterans, he reminded his audience, need not take advantage of the educational benefits.

Teen-Agers Find Home in Ardmore American Legion

Although Lower Merion teen-agers have found a home at the Ardmore American Legion echoes of their eviction from the Ardmore Woman's Club are still resounding through the Main Line.

The only question that was raised about the Lower Merion Teen-Age Canteen moving into the Bullock-Sanderson Post on Sutton Rd. in Ardmore was settled this week when the Legionnaires decided to fix up the floor of their meeting place for dancing. Officials of the Post feared that the old floor was inadequate for dancing.

Teen-agers will hold their first dance October 26.

Meanwhile the action of the Woman's Club board of directors in serving notice on the teen-agers that they would have to vacate was the subject of discussion and criticism among club members. It promises to provoke a stormy session when the next general Club meeting is held.

Penn Valley Group To Hold Meeting

Victory Night, the annual fall meeting of the Penn Valley Association will be held Tuesday evening, October 23 at 8 P. M. in the Montgomery County Day School gymnasium.

Directors Feel It Should Apply to All Overtime Work

Lower Merion High School coaches on Monday night moved one step nearer a showdown consideration on their request for extra pay for coaching.

Their arguments for extra pay are based on the Philadelphia compensation schedule for coaching, which they submitted at a meeting of the athletic committee last Wednesday, were passed along to the entire School Board when it met Monday night at the school's Administration Building in Ardmore.

What transpired at last Wednesday night's meeting of the School Board's athletic committee was read by Miss Frances McCabe, School Board secretary.

Following the suggestion of E. F. Burlingame, president, the other directors agreed that the coaches' request should be turned over to a special committee, recently appointed to consider the salary question for teachers and school employees. Dr. L. Wilbur Zimmerman is chairman of the committee.

Dr. Zimmerman said he hoped to have a report of his committee ready by the first of the year. This would be in time to include any recommendations the committee

Establish Veterans' Service Center in Bryn Mawr; Legion Posts and Draft Boards to Aid in Work

$600 Appropriated by Township to Carry On the Work

Two selective service boards which share jurisdiction over Lower Merion Township and Narberth Borough and American Legion service officers of six Main Line posts have been handling the problems of returning veterans here.

On Wednesday night Lower Merion commissioners designated the Bryn Mawr War Memorial Building, headquarters of Bryn Mawr Selective Service Board, as the official Veterans Service Center for the Township.

The designation was made after a closed-session conference with Dr. S. Edgar Downs, reemployment committee chairman of the Narberth Selective Service Board, and Dr. J. Allen Rogers, reemployment committee chairman of the Bryn Mawr Board. Commissioners appropriated $600 for expenses of the office.

Establishment of the center was requested by Henry Harman, representing 12 Main Line organizations, and Frank Challenger, deputy district commander of the Montgomery County American Legion. Harman is a former commander of the Bullock-Sanderson Legion Post in Ardmore, and Challenger is commander of the

U. S. VETERANS BUREAU TO OPEN 69TH STREET BRANCH

The U. S. Veterans' Administration soon will establish a branch office in the 69th Street section of Upper Darby to serve veterans residing in Delaware, Montgomery and Chester Counties.

Plans for the new branch were announced yesterday by Harry Crosson, Regional Manager of the Veterans' Administration, who said the branch will offer veterans in this area all the facilities now available in Philadelphia.

The office, Crosson said, will be located in the Terminal Motors Building, approximately one block from the 69th Street Terminal.

Although no opening date has been set, Crosson said VA officials hope to have the office in operation by January 1. He said plans for alterations are now underway in the Federal Building Agency, which leased the building for the Veterans' Administration. The alterations will require about 45 days before the building will be ready for occupancy.

The office will be staffed by approximately 150 workers and will include rehabilitation, claims, adjudication, medical and legal departments. All facilities now provided to veterans of the three-county area in the Philadelphia office will be available in the Upper Darby office," Crosson said.

Establishment of this new office will eliminate a great deal of travel for veterans in Delaware, Montgomery and Chester Counties who are now required to come to Philadelphia to obtain the services of the Veterans' Administration.

Crosson estimated that the new office will reduce the caseload in the regional headquarters in the Customs House, Second and Chestnut Sts., by approximately 35 per cent.

A recent study disclosed that a large number of the veterans filing claims and having other business with the main offices come from the suburban communities," he said. "After considering the matter carefully, we decided that the most logical location for the branch office would be in the 69th Street section, since all high speed trolley and bus lines from the various Main Line communities come into the 69th St. Terminal."

A similar branch office also may be established in Norristown soon, Crosson said.

tional benefits offered immediately upon their discharge. Many veterans, he said, went into industry before the war ended instead of going to school, but they are eligible for the benefits if they apply within two years of their discharge date.

Disabled servicemen, Crosson said, are granted 48 months education and received $92 a month maintenance or $103.50 if married. A man who has had two years in the service and who is not disabled is entitled to 36 months.

He also pointed out that all servicemen should register with the United States Employment Service if they do not continue their education. If he does not find a suitable job, the serviceman, whether or not he has been gainfully employed prior to his service, can draw unemployment benefits of $20 per week for 52 weeks.

Establish Veterans' Post in Narberth

Harman represented the following groups: Six Main Line American Legion posts, the Main Line Chamber of Commerce, Main Line Kiwanis Club, Ardmore and Bala-Cynwyd-Narberth Rotary Clubs, Bryn Mawr Business Association and Main Line Lion Club.

Both the Bryn Mawr and Narberth Selective Service Boards have a reemployment committee with each member specializing on some form of veterans' aid. All veterans are ordered to report to their board within ten days after their discharge, bringing with them their separation notice which gives their entire military history, family status and present status.

Chairman of the Narberth reemployment committee is Dr. Downs, former superintendent of schools in Lower Merion; William Durbin is secretary, and Joseph V. Durbin is the third member. They are assisted by an advisory committee comprising Capt. E. W. Bonaffion, USN, chairman; Walter E. Rosenberger, Louis Young, Burns Best, Joseph Taccogna and Robert F. Wood. The legal adviser is Desmond McTigue, government appeal agent for the draft board.

According to Dr. Downs, the chief work of the committee is to advise and refer them to the appropriate government agencies for whatever help they need. The primary function of McTigue is to see that the board operates legally and to give advice to the veterans.

The men are given booklets showing the services to which they are entitled. If they wish assistance they fill out a form which they explain what they want and are then given free advice by the board members.

Any involved legal work is referred to the Veterans Administration, and the Red Cross handles cases involving veterans' families and pensions.

At the Bryn Mawr board, Dr. Rogers, the reemployment committee chairman, and his advisory committee comprising Edward Snow, principal of Ardmore Junior High School, as educational advisor, and William McCall, legal adviser, handle more of the detail for the veterans who request assistance.

Some of the services they can include correction of errors in Army papers; giving free legal aid to wives and mothers who have not been receiving their pensions; helping men who in their anxiety to be mustered out failed to report physical or mental afflictions, and assisting wives and mothers who suffered breakdowns after receiving telegrams from the War Department.

Men with disabilities are referred to the Veterans Administration, for treatment at Naval Hospital or Coatesville Veterans Hospital.

Where a wife or mother becomes a mental case, McCall, if the family requests it, attends to having a guardian appointed, an estate created and treatment obtained for her. In every case of this kind, Dr. Rogers said, this help for the children has been found with relatives.

He reported that employers in this area have been most cooperative in the matter of reemployment of returning service men. "The trouble lies in making the necessary adjustments between the man and his job," he declared.

"Frequently a man will have incurred a disability making it impossible for him to handle his former job. In this case we appeal to the employer to give the man a different job, one which he will be able to handle. Here, too, the employer has been very cooperative."

Dr. Rogers said, there have been about 550 men discharged in Bryn Mawr, and approximately 30 percent of these have requested assistance of some kind. "Service women are equally eligible for assistance of the board."

Men who have honorable discharges are legally entitled only to assistance in having their cases reviewed, but both boards tend to stretch a point, particularly to help a man find employment.

date, October 16, 1945. The reasons for the action are as follows:

"1. General increase: The Company refused an increase at this time."
"2. Holiday pay for six holidays: The Company refused to pay for any holiday not worked."
"3. Union shop: The Company refused to recognize a union shop as such."

"4. Union policy regarding returning veterans, joining the Union, will be governed by the ruling of the courts."
"This is the unanimous decision of both committees."

The notice was signed by both the executive board and the negotiating committees of Local 131, UAW-CIO.

This was followed by a second notice posted on the bulletin board Wednesday night which read:

"Negotiations between the union and management of the contract for 1945 have broken off and the executive board acting on the authority given them at the membership meeting on October 7, 1945, have applied to the National Labor Relations Board for a strike vote."

This notice was signed by Bernard J. Hargadon, president, and James J. Costello, recording secretary of the local CIO group.

NOTICE TO SHAREHOLDERS

NATIONAL BANK OF NARBERTH

You are hereby notified that, on November 1st, 1945, at 5 o'clock P. M., pursuant to action of the Board of Directors, a meeting of shareholders of this bank will be held at its banking house in Narberth, Penna., to consider and vote upon the following proposals, and matters incidental thereto which properly may come before that meeting:

1. To consider a form of shareholders' resolution which has been received from the Controller of the Currency, and which may be examined at the bank, at any time during office hours prior to the aforesaid meeting. That form of resolution provides for the following:

(a) An increase of the common stock of the bank from $50,000 to $75,000 by the declaration of a $25,000 stock dividend under the applicable provisions of Section 5142 of the United States Revised Statutes, as amended. The shareholders of the bank will be entitled to participate in the distribution of that dividend, in accordance with their respective holdings of common stock of the bank. In connection with the stock dividend, the par value per share of the common stock will be changed to $25, with a corresponding change in the number of shares of such stock.

(b) Completely revised articles of association for the bank which will provide, among other things, for a sliding scale of from five to twenty-five directors for the bank, the present limits fixed by law; for the capital changes; and for a requisite notice of at least ten days, by mail, to call special and, in some instances, annual meetings of shareholders in the future. The adoption of completely revised articles of association is suggested in order that the bank may have all of its effective articles reflected in one document.

he said, "Simply a disagreement over the 1945 contract. We are still on a friendly basis."

CIO officials, who did not care to be quoted had this to say about the four issues at stake:

That in regards to the general increase the employees were asking a 30 per cent increase as formulated by the UAW-CIO. It was needed, they said, because the cost of living had gone up and they would not afford to live at their present wages now that they were back on a 40-hour week.

In regard to holiday pay they want straight time for New Year's, Christmas, Thanksgiving, Labor Day, Memorial Day and Fourth of July if they do not work and double time if they do work.

In regards to the union shop they want all employees to become members of the union within 30 days after they are hired and that persons refusing or losing membership in the union shall not be retained in employment.

In regard to returning veterans CIO officials say they are in agreement with management that they will accept the Supreme Court decision on this policy. At present they are letting veterans in the CIO without initiation fees.

Commissioners consider the need of parking areas in business sections one of their postwar problems in which municipalities will be forced to take more and more responsibility.

Narberth Club Hears Speaker On Language

Coming Meetings for All Small Groups Announced

American slang words have enriched the English language, said Maxine Berlitz Vollmer, at the Narberth Women's Community Club meeting Tuesday afternoon. Slang is dating but as soon as it loses its color and novelty, it becomes a part of their language, she added.

Mrs. Berlitz, granddaughter of Maximilian Berlitz, who founded the internationally known school of language, said the history of the English language from the Aryan language on up to the present day, and emphasized her lecture with interesting and amusing anecdotes.

Among other things she said that the origin of all languages is pure conjecture on the part of scientists because there were thousands of years when words were not written. However, she pointed out that one of the differences between foreign and the English languages is that in the foreign, things are grouped together whereas in the English language they are not related.

According to Mrs. Vollmer, all athletic terms are of Greek derivation and our nautical words have a Dutch origin.

"The spirit of the English language is the importation of words from other languages into the world as a whole," she concluded.

Prayer Opens Meeting

Mrs. Samuel McCann, president, opened the meeting by requesting the club members to stand a moment in silent prayer for the boys who will not return. This was followed by a pledge to the flag.

Mrs. Henry S. Drinker, Merion, made an appeal for the war fund drive, saying the club members could play a big part in publicizing the drive.

Mrs. William H. Durbin, membership chairman, introduced six new members who were accepted at the October 9 board meeting.

The group was entertained by the singing of Mrs. Katherine Bailey Westman, soprano, who sang three songs accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Mildred Bailey, Narberth.

Mrs. Ellis Clark, program chairman, introduced the speaker. The hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. C. W. Sunderland and Mrs. J. E. Burrell.

might make into the School Board's 1946-47 budget.

Round table discussions that took place among the directors Monday night indicated that the problem of teacher salary adjustments was being considered for all extra-curricular work as well as coaching.

In opening the discussion Burlingame said:

"I myself think it requires serious consideration because practically all teachers are engaged in some extra-curricular activities. Bible teachers, for example, are just as important to us as coaches."

Another driver brought out that even the bus drivers were now asked for extra pay for extra work.

John W. Hornsey, Penn Wynne school director, asked how soon the special committee could be expected to take the matter up. Burlingame said just as soon as they received some data on extra pay practices in other schools which was being collected by Superintendent of Schools F. A. Dubois.

Sunday had reports from several schools and expected to obtain others which he could turn over to the special committee.

The School Board's president and several other directors asked the newspaper men present to make clear to the public that any extra pay schedules approved would be reflected in the cost of operating the school district.

With the exception of the Philadelphia coaches' extra pay schedule, which was published in this newspaper last week, the following are the summary minutes of the athletic coach meeting:

The Athletic Committee of the Board of School Directors of Lower Merion Township, Messrs. Zimmerman, Baltz and Dr. Zimmerman met on Wednesday evening October 10, 1945 at 7:45 p. m. in the School Administration Building with a Committee of Teachers representing coaches in the senior and junior high schools. The Committee of Teachers consisted of Mr. Hill as Chairman; Messrs. Reeves and Mattis representing senior high school coaches for boys' sports; Miss Clark representing senior high school coaches for girls' sports and Mr. Green representing junior high school coaches.

Mr. Hill stated that the Committee requests compensation for teachers who do coaching. Compensation in the form of money and not adjusted time. He presented a schedule of salaries paid to coaches in the Philadelphia School District and requested the Athletic Committee of the Board to consider a comparable schedule for coaches in Lower Merion for the 1946-47 school year.

Mr. Burlingame questioned the members of the Committee in connection with their understanding of duties to be performed by them at the time they were engaged as teachers in Lower Merion. Messrs. Hill, Reeves and Green reported teachers and asked to assist in coaching. Mr. Mattis and Miss Clark reported that no mention of coaching was made to them at the time they were appointed as teachers.

Legal Hitch Holds Up School Payments

A State law may prevent payments by the Lower Merion School Board to private and parochial schools of money for medical and dental examinations.

In accordance with the new School Health Act public school directors are held responsible for the medical and dental examination of students in all schools.

At the September meeting of the Lower Merion board a resolution was passed authorizing payments to parochial and private schools for this work.

Junior Club Group Held First Meeting For Miller-Young Of New Season

Miss Margaret Robertson and Mrs. Harper Claycomb will be in charge of the gift table; the baby table will be handled by Mrs. A. M. Bottoms and Mrs. Rollins and Lough; Mrs. Ralph K. Rollins and Lough will be in charge of the needle work table; the white elephant table will be under the direction of Mrs. Vincent Stolz and Miss Shirley Vincent; Miss F. M. ## Co. Federation To Meet in Philadelphia

Session to Last Only One Day; Will Start With Luncheon

A change in the usual all-day fall meeting of the Montgomery County Federation of Women's Clubs takes place this year. A luncheon will be held on Friday, October 19, followed by a short program of interesting speakers. Instead of the customary all-day, two-session meeting.

Judge Anna M. Kross, New York City magistrate, and Chaplain Frederick E. Morse, of the Valley Forge General Hospital, Phoenix, will address the women attending the meeting as representatives of near 30 women's clubs of the county.

The luncheon will be held at the Benjamin Franklin Hotel, Philadelphia, on October 19 at 12:30 p. m.

A contest for press and scrap books maintained by the various clubs will be held by the publicity chairman, Mrs. William F. Drake. The judges will be newspaper editors.

Mrs. Edward W. Heymann, of Bala-Cynwyd, president of the federation, will preside. The program has been arranged by Mrs. R. C. Eisenstranger, of Jenkintown. Reservations are in charge of Mrs. L. Walton Hess, of Jenkintown.

Judge Kross, who is chairman of the youth program of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, is a famous jurist known especially for her work with young people.

A few of the activities of her career include: being legal counsel for over eighty unions, organizing the Building Trades Compensation Bureau, the appointment to the Magistrate's Bench in 1934, organization of the Magistrates' Courts Special Service Bureau, organization and service as judge of the Wayward Minors' Court.

Governor Alfred E. Smith to his committee to remedy defects in the law and its administration.

The wife of Lt. Kross and the mother of two children, Judge Kross says that a majority of the problems in the Magistrate's Court are essentially social rather than criminal. She regards the court as an institution to help people become readjusted within the community rather than as an instrumentality for punishment.

son. Mr. Wilson has previously written two mystery stories, "Footsteps Behind Her" and "Stalk the Hunter". In this, his first, full length novel, he tells the story of a remarkable woman and her effect upon the men who desire her. It is a psychological drama of love that generates a mood of explosive suspense.

"Village In The Sun", Dane Chandos. The story of a small Mexican village, on Lake Chapala in the Mountains South of Guadalajara where everything happens more suddenly, more endlessly, where life is lived with fury, ease and tenderness.

"Animal Fair", Evelyn West. "Animal Fair" is Miss West's first novel, a mealy and dramatic novel of family life and a love story as well.

"Lonely Steeple" by Victor Wolfson. "Lonely Steeple" tells of a young girl who needs desperately to love and is loved, a story of passion and fury set against a bleak New England landscape. Although this is Mr. Wolfson's first novel, he has already made his name in the theater, with his play "Blister Steam" based on Silone's anti-Fascist "Fontamara".

"Horn of Plenty", Valma Clark. The story of the Rathbones, an extraordinary family of up-state New Yorkers, and also of Edith Larkins, a fairly ordinary hired girl, who had to step in and run their lives.

Electric Living provides

A PRODUCTION LINE for your HOME Laundry

Electric washers have been easing the home laundering job for years . . . and the new ones practically think for themselves. Just set the dials, add soap, and your clothes are washed, rinsed in clear water and then damp-dried . . . all automatically.

Then there's the electric home drying unit that will dry your clothes—rain or shine—summer or winter. Finally, you'll want an electric ironer to speed your ironing of shirts, house-dresses and all the other laundry. Yes, it certainly will be a treat to live electrically with a production line of appliances to do all your laundry from start to finish!

Ready Kilowatt suggests you keep in touch with your local electrical dealer or department store to learn when the new appliances in which you are interested will be available.

SPORTS SCENE

By L. M. FORD

If you were at Pennypacker Field last Saturday, brother, you really saw a ball game. It was unquestionably the most exciting game of the entire L. M. Haverford series and you probably won't see its equal the rest of the season.

It was modern football at its dizzy, wide-open, wild, sloppy, brilliant, baffling best. That it was anybody's ball game until the last second is putting it mildly. Nothing was certain at any time. In fact, it's quite possible that even the players themselves didn't know which team had the ball half the time. It's a cinch the fans didn't.

The wide-open style of play used by both teams was so effective that once on the field, the control of the situation the other couldn't do much except stand by and take it. Haverford was by far the better team in the first half, and from the moment Lower Merion caught fire in the second half it appeared just as superior, if not more so, the rest of the game.

Lower Merion never looked as smooth as the second half as Haverford did in the first half, but the Maroon had the kyo punch and that's what counted. Lower Merion won because Haverford couldn't find the proper answer consistently to its quick breaking T-formation play while L. M. managed to make Haverford's aerial game miss fire in the second half by the simple method of checking and slowing up the intended receivers at the line of scrimmage and preventing them from getting open.

Jimmy Hess had plenty of time to do his chucking in the second half, but he had trouble finding any receivers. To say just couldn't get to their appointed spot in time or were so well cornered they made a poor target.

BOTH HAD MOXIE
We came away from the game mighty proud of both teams, because neither gave up when the odds appeared hopelessly against them. We believe Lower Merion's rally was the greatest of any Maroon team in our memory. The Maroon team in a game played in a game Upper Darby got a two-touchdown jump on L. M., and the latter came back to win. But Lower Merion was a big favorite that year and it was not of the calibre of last week's foe.

There was doubt of Lower Merion's ability to beat Haverford, starting from scratch, so few thought the Maroon would be able to do it when behind by 14-0 at halftime.

Having discovered the latent power in its midst, Lower Merion should the standings count as it, club the rest of the season. Only Norristown, which will be stronger with each passing week, appears a sizeable hurdle the rest of the way, but so long as the Maroon continues to fumble as it has it will never be able to take anything for granted.

Haverford, now that the pressure is off, should be able to relax and play even better ball than prior to the L. M. meeting and should have a good chance of winning all its games prior to Turkey Day.

OFFICIAL LEAGUE NEEDED
There is a possibility the Suburban Big Six standing will end in a tie as Haverford, Lower Merion and Abington each have lost one game and could easily go through the rest of the mythical loop season without dropping another. Lower Merion fans are concerned lest they lose out on a possible tie for the title because the Maroon doesn't play Cheltenham.

This would probably be up to the trophy donor to decide. If there was any question whatsoever as to the winner he probably wouldn't make the award, regardless of newspaper standings. Actually, the coaches and the schools themselves hold the answer. They ought to get together and decide what they want in respect to Cheltenham. Should all the games with Cheltenham be tossed out of the standings and the trophy awarded to the team that should the standings count as it, unfair as it is to L. M.?

This situation is only another of the many reasons why the schools should get together and form an official league to play for next season. Now's the time to act—not next September.

FOR THE RECORD
Just to keep the record straight: Oscar Granger, Haverford High principal, says he doesn't want the public to think Haverford tried to force Upper Darby to take the Thanksgiving Day game to Villanova College stadium. He says the idea was merely suggested to them when it was found Upper Darby wasn't interested the idea was dropped.

Before the game could have been transferred permission would have been needed from R. R. A. Haverford, the school board, and the Haverford school board. It is possible neither would have given this consent.

It has also been learned that the Haverford student council wasn't keen about the idea, particularly because Villanova's stadium has been allowed to deteriorate in recent years and student leadership isn't in condition to handle a big game. M. J. Radnor had better check on this before Nov. 17.

In the meantime, Haverford authorities are redoubling their efforts to build additional stands for the Brookline field. Let's hope they'll be successful prior to Turkey Day.

Ridley Township Plays Maroon Eleven Saturday As Radnor Battles Fords

Scott's 9-Yard Pass to Kane Gives L. M.

Thrilling Victory After Being Out-classed in First Half, 14-0

Lower Merion and Haverford High both face hard tasks this Saturday but they have one consolation: This week's games won't be as hard on the heart and nerves as last Saturday's heart-hammering thriller at Ardmore.

That's when Lower Merion outscored Haverford, 20-14, in one of the most exciting games of a young but already traditional series.

This week Lower Merion entertains Ridley Township, a tough little team that would get a particular delight from knocking off Coach Dick Mattis' high-riding proteges. Ridley Township will visit Ardmore fresh from a 25-0 victory over Collingdale.

However, if Lower Merion has a hard task, it can't be truthfully said that Haverford's is any easier. All the Fords have to do is follow up a hard game with one against the mischievous little gamecocks from Radnor on the Brookline gridiron.

The Red Raiders will be remembered as the playful little characters who knocked off Haverford last year, 6-0, after Haverford had scored its first touchdown. This year, however, Haverford's great streak, 7-6. This so encouraged Radnor it wound up the season by defeating Lower Merion, 27-0, to throw the Suburban Big Six title in Upper Darby's lap.

This year Radnor seems to be cast in a mold of the same type. Its only approach to a victory in four games has been an 0-0 tie with naturally the champion themselves, the Derry, Radnor lost to Norristown, Tredeford-Easton and Cheltenham.

What a spirited team can accomplish was never demonstrated with finer or more exacting play than it was by Lower Merion against Haverford, which had plenty of what it takes in its own right. Haverford was leading 14-0 at the half and was drinking toward the end of the game when Lower Merion lashed back and eventually won.

The tide was turned by the long reach of Len Sheppard, a defensive star for Lower Merion, who intercepted a Haverford pass when the Fords were making serious motions toward a third touchdown.

Sheppard reached high for a pass from Jimmy Hess, Haverford's star player, and Lower Merion's 14-yard line early in the third quarter. The crowd of 8,000 at Ardmore didn't know it at the time, but from then on it was destined to be a ball game to remember. Lower Merion went on to score 20 points and Haverford went down fighting almost to the final whistle.

Sheppard ran back 14 yards after his interception and Lower Merion won its way to victory six plays for a touchdown. Parry Scott's line bucking and passing from the "up" position in the T featured the drive.

One of Scott's tosses, to Dick Powell, gained 34 yards and moved the ball into scoring position on the Haverford 27. Then he fired nine yards over the left flank to tall Jack Kane, who streaked 18 more yards to score standing up.

Then left footed Steve Burt kicked the extra point to have Haverford's advantage at 7-14.

Stan Broza kicked off for Lower Merion following the touchdown. Hess ran it back 19 yards to the Haverford 37. Hess went right to tackle for seven yards but a backfield in motion penalty on the next down set Haverford back to the 32.

Then Tackle Jim Fleck, the outstanding lineman in the game, stepped through the line and spilled Charley Bray for a five yard loss.

After Bray's line smash failed to gain, Fleck charged in again and blocked Bray's punt. Hess saved the ball for Haverford by falling on it back on the 10, but Fleck had almost singlehandedly forced Haverford back 22 yards.

Bob McCausland shifted from end and kicked out to Powell, who hustled it back 15 yards to the Haverford 40. Lower Merion covered the distance to the goal in eight plays, four in the third quarter and four in the last.

Swift John Mullin made the biggest single contribution to this movement when he skipped through the middle of the line and cut toward the right sidelines for 13 yards. Powell moved it to the five and Mullin went through tackle for a touchdown.

Mullin's crossing evaded the matter of touchdowns but Haverford was still one up, 14-13, when Burt's place kick attempt for the tying point was low.

A little later what Haverford Coach Bill Stinson calls the deciding point of the game occurred. Only eight minutes remained and Haverford had the ball, by virtue of Ray Cunniff's recovery of Powell's fumble, on the Lower Merion 49.

Here Haverford became bold and Dick Williams threw a pass on first down. Sheppard got his hands on the ball, couldn't hold it for his second interception.

As it turned out, it didn't actually matter much. Lower Merion won the game on the next play anyway. Williams completed a short pass to Giuliani on the left flank and he attempted to lateral to a tackle, however, and his pass fell to the ground not more than five feet behind. Alert Fleck fell on it for Lower Merion on Haverford's 49.

Here Lower Merion had a couple friendly pats by Lady Luck as it drove 49 yards in 12 plays. Maroon backs fumbled twice, and Haverford recovered both, but each time the play was nullified by off sides penalties and Lower Merion retained possession.

The first time Scott fumbled and McCausland recovered, but both teams were off sides. The second time, Sheppard bobbled and Jack Gilligan dropped on it. The time Haverford was off sides.

The contest five yards short of a tie when Scott rifled a nine yard pass to Kane in the end zone. This was enough to assure Lower Merion of victory, but Burt booted the 20th point anyway.

But even as Lower Merion had the spirit to fight back, so did Haverford. They came back in one, last desperate fling, going 45 yards in 10 plays. Maroon 19 before their passing barrage was halted.

Thanks to JOHN H. HORNER, AOM 3/C '43 for your photo.

CPL. JOHN C. WEHMANN, APO 655 NY is in Wiesbaden, Germany. He left his old outfit in Antwerp, went to school in Paris, where he met his first Merionite, JOHN SIMMS. JOHN is with the 318th Sig. Serv. Bn.

ENS. W. W. SMITH is on an LSM FPO SF. He says the old ship really bounces around in those heavy storms. In a contest recently for a name, she was dubbed "WAVE BANGER." He hasn't gotten seasick yet, and isn't anxious for the experience.

Thanks to PFC. NORRIS L. SHOWELL, APO 690 NY with the 2000 KM. TRK. CO. (AVN) for an interesting letter on India. Among other things, he sends an adv. taken from a local newspaper—"Wanted, a beautiful, handsome, healthy, educated bride—expert in household work and vocal music. The groom is 28, handsome, working on a high salary. Apply with a copy of horoscope and particulars about family." Yes, they advertise for wives and husbands in a land one-third as large as the USA with three times as many people. And 200,000,000 cows, and all sacred. We've heard about that from REV. SAM HIGGENBOTTOM, agricultural missionary to India for some 40 years.

LILLIAN G. BLAIR, AMM. 3/C '40 at Ottumwa, Iowa, sends her copy of "IOWINGS" with the heading that LT. MICKEY COCHRANE has been assigned to Iowa Pre-flight after six months' duty in the South Pacific.

CPL. HORACE S. LEE is with the 1343 AAF Base Unit APO 430 NY in China. He works next to ART LYLE and says they sure rush over his old school days. He expects TOM McDONOUGH to come down to see him. His letter, dated July 7, said the rains had started, farmers were planting rice, and the "mud is like cement."

Thanks, CADET MARY ELIA HEPPARD for your news. We've passed it on to Mr. Africa so that it will find its way into the proper column. Congratulations. I had forgotten your mother was a WAC.

PFC. KEN SKEPPER '41 is still at Camp Butler, sweating out his eighth operation. His last one got him to the point where he can walk fairly well, and he got a three-day pass to Greensboro, where he visited a fraternity brother. About Camp Butler—Ken just doesn't like the place, mosquitoes, ants, cockroaches, and what not! JACK BOSTWICK was discharged—don't look for him.

LT. KITTY FREEMAN, ANC, Camp Pickett, Va., wrote a very interesting letter about her duties as a nurse, and about the swell guys who are her patients. It was most interesting, and you probably are a very swell nurse, if I remember you correctly from high school days. Her P. S. says that the other night PUP NORBLOOM, '40, and BOB MCCLINTOCK, '37, came around to see me.

CPL. HARRY STROTHERS, '43, has been transferred to the 101 ACRS, Baer Field, Ft. Wayne, Ind.

Brookline and Manoa Decide Main Line League Title Sunday Providing Weatherman Is Kind

Honest, folks, the baseball championship of the Main Line League finally will be settled this Sunday. Whom—that is of the weather permits.

Brookline never had a chance to end the title series one game short of the required five games last week. Manoa saw to that by pounding three Brookline pitchers for 14 lusty hits and a 9-0 triumph that tied up the "frost-bite" playoffs at two games apiece.

So if it isn't too cold, or there isn't snow or it doesn't rain they'll go to bat for the last time this year at Veterans Field this week. Last year, you may recall, Manoa and Narberth, reached this point of the series and had to call off the fifth game and the series on account of unseasonable weather.

But the boys who rather than have it end in another tie, they'll play baring a blizzard or frozen hands.

It'll be Ollie Harpster, Manoa's No. 2 pitcher, against Jack Creany, unheralded Brookline southpaw, in the finale, according to rival managers, Sammy Rudolph and Eddie Hare.

Harper shut out the Hares, 5-0, with one hit in the second game, but lost the third game to Creany, 4-2.

The veteran Walt Cantwell attuned for his opening game 11-inning loss by holding Brookline to five scattered hits last week, while his Manoa teammates made merry at the expense of Len Smith, Walt Appell and Ball Waters.

Smith, who was clubbed for eight hits and six runs before he was relieved.

Brookline's defense cracked for the first time in the series, four errors helping along the Manoa cause. Manoa pushed over three runs with the help of two errors in the fifth inning and added a single run in the sixth, two in the seventh and made it a complete rout with three more in the eighth.

Giampalmi, Larkin, Ash, Armstrong and Cantwell each had two hits for Manoa with Larkin and Armstrong each knocking in two runs. Straccione, Snyder had the only extra base hits, all triples.
